UNIVERSITY LAW COLLEGE MODEL UNITED NATIONS

We are extremely glad to announce that University Law College & Department of Studies in Law, Bangalore University, Bengaluru is organizing virtual Model United Nations (MUN) Conference from 2nd October 2020 to 4th October 2020.

About the University

Bangalore University is located in the Garden City of Bengaluru at Jnanabharathi campus spread over 1100 acres. The University has over 8500 on campus students, four constituent colleges and 299 affiliated colleges. The departments in the university include Science, Arts, Commerce, Law, Engineering, Management. The University offers 48 PG subjects and 209 courses. Presently, Prof. Dr. K R Venugopal is the Vice Chancellor of Bangalore University.

About the Institution

University Law College, Bengaluru is a constituent college of the University which is committed towards imparting quality education, promoting scientific tempo and blending theoretical knowledge with practical skills. The institution aims at pursuing academic excellence through teaching, research, publications and by providing access to all sections of the society to pursue higher education for promoting leadership qualities among students making them socially sensitive citizens.

The erstwhile Government of Mysore (now the State of Karnataka) started the college in the year 1948. It was previously known as the Bangalore Government Law College. From 1964, ULC was brought under the Faculty of Law of Bangalore University. In the year 1982, the college emphatically transformed into one of the first professional law colleges in the country by introducing the five-year integrated B.A.LL.B. program for the first time, in the academic year 1986-87. This was an initiative to achieve higher standards in legal education.

As a testimony to this fact, among ULC's graduates are many Supreme Court and High Court Justices, renowned public servants, bureaucrats, lawyers and academicians of repute. Some of the notable alumni include Hon'ble Justice M. N. Venkatachaliah, Hon'ble Justice Venkatachala, Hon'ble Justice N. Santosh Hegde, Hon'ble Justice R.V. Raveendran, former Chief Ministers Sri. S. Bangarappa, Sri. S.M. Krishna & Union Ministers, Governor Smt. Margaret Alva, and eminent advocates.

Presently, Prof. Dr. Suresh V. Nadagoudar is the Principal of University Law College, Bangalore University, and Prof. Dr. N. Dasharath is the Chairman of the Department of Studies in Law and Dean, Faculty of Law, Bangalore University.

Preface to the Model United Nations

University Law College would like to provide a platform for deliberation as we strongly propagate education through experience. As a law college which has a legacy of responding to the needs of the time, we have initiated the Model United Nations conference to highlight the importance of issues that concerns global diplomacy, humanity, peace and justice. Hence, we believe that an opportunity to host a Model United Nations would expand the learning horizons of the participants by exchange of viable solutions and diverse view-points. It would be pivotal for the students to understand the nuances and intricacies of international law and the functioning of the United Nations Organisation and develop a better understanding of the global community.
