MOOT PROPOSITION

1. Prabhas was a successful graduate from an esteemed college of Delta State of Indica. Since college time, Prabhas was an active social worker. After passing the college, Prabhas joined an NGO namely Safal to give voluntary services to the downtrodden sect of the society along with his regular job at MNC of his city. The NGO Safal, worked specially for the women and children in the rural and remote areas who are deprived of their rights and privileges and who are unaware of the same. Being connected to the NGO, Prabhas was very active in providing help to the women and children who were deprived of education, nutrition, also who were subjected to inequality and crime.
2. There were many instances where the Safal with active participation of Prabhas had successfully inspired parents of girl child to give them permission to carry on their education and sometimes Prabhas saved the married women from domestic violence or sexual abuse and had ended up attaining justice for such victims.
3. After being associated for as long as 15 years with Safal, Prabhas became a prominent member of NGO and was respected by the State Government for such noble contribution to the society. At various conferences and functions, Prabhas was awarded and acknowledged for his noble work which he did for women and girl child.

4. In the year 2020, he came across a girl, named 'Gudia', of 9 years of age in village Dalhousie, of Delta State, whose parent's complaint against an elementary school teacher 'Vijay' who demanded bribe from the said girl and few more children of the said school for admissions. Also, Prabhas noticed numerous irregularities done by the school administration, which violated the Government Order regarding collection of fees from the economically downtrodden students.
5. Eventually, Prabhas filed a case against the said schoolteacher Vijay for demanding bribe from the students. Later, Prabhas came to know that the same teacher had molested three girls including 'Gudia'. The parent of other girl child 'Baby', who was molested by the same teacher, had filed a complaint before the headmaster against sexual assault of their girl child. But no action was taken by the school management against the said schoolteacher Vijay. Thus, with the bonafide intention to pressurize the school authority, Prabhas posted the entire incident of sexual assault done by the teacher along with details of the molested girls and the accused schoolteacher Vijay on Facegood a social media platform. The post which Prabhas wrote gave details about the names, class, division, school and address of the victim girls.
6. The Home Minister of Delta state took the cognizance on the post of Prabhas and directed the Police authorities to register a case against the accused schoolteacher under section 10 of Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012.

7. Police in turn lodged an FIR against said schoolteacher Vijay under section 10 of Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 at Police Station Dalhousie based on said post on Facegood.
8. The Child Welfare Committee (CWC) ordered registration of an F.I.R. against Prabhas for disclosing the identity of the victim of child sexual abuse under section 23 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012. According to Prabhas, he was unaware that all such minute details given in the post would attract Section 23 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012. Later, after two days, noticing the details of the victims available on post he wrote, Prabhas deleted the post from Facegood. But before Prabhas could delete the post, the CWC had already ordered for registration of FIR. Consequently, Police Station Dalhousie registered a case under section 23 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 against Prabhas.
