ABOUT THE WEBINAR

The rising popularity of Augmented Reality resulted in multinational organisations like Meta (previously Facebook) and Disney investing in an avant-garde way of living while discussions on its association with privacy and security, especially in Southern Asia remain marginal. This topic remains significant, given the recent discussions on the Data Protection Bill in India and how the country responds to the acceleration of Augmented Reality. The Centre for Specialisation in Cyber Law Studies seeks to impart education with regards to this topic amongst students across the nation whilst encouraging fruitful discussions on the same.
