The editors are making a call for book chapters and call for papers in the form of research papers and conceptual papers for an edited book titled “A LANDMARK ON THE INDIAN CONSTITUTION”.

About Book

A LANDMARK ON THE INDIAN CONSTITUTION is an edited book that delves into the history, ideology, interpretation, and implementation of India’s Constitution. The book will consist of several essays written by eminent scholars who describe the various components of India’s Constitution, from its makers to its implications for citizens. In this book, readers can learn about the Indian Constitution’s unique form of federal government, equal rights, fundamental duties, human rights, administrative machinery, economic development, and more. Additionally, readers will be able to consider the Constitution’s historical legacy, as well as its implications for the future. With thorough coverage of India’s Constitution, Indian Constitution: An Overview is an essential resource for anyone seeking to gain a more in-depth understanding of its contents and implications.

The Senior Faculty from the Institute of Legal Education shall serve as the Editors of the Book.
